

YOUTH JUSTICE FORUM

Ensuring uniform & evidence-based justice experiences for all youth in Georgia

May 2, 2019

Peachtree City Hotel & Conference Center

AGENDA

9:00AM – 9:35AM (McIntosh Room)	Opening Remarks Jay Neal , Executive Director, Criminal Justice Coordinating Council Colin Slay , Programs & Resource Development Director, Clayton County Juvenile Court Stefanie Lopez-Howard , Statistical Analysis Center Division Director, Criminal Justice Coordinating Council
9:45AM - 11:15PM (McIntosh Room)	The Hidden Biases of Good People: Implications for Criminal Justice Professionals & the Populations They Serve Dr. Bryant Marks , Executive Director, National Training Institute on Race & Equity
11:20PM - 12:50PM (McIntosh Room)	Keynote Luncheon: The Many Faces of Trauma: Implications for the Well-Being of Children, Young Adults, & Families Dr. Stephanie Pearson , Clinical Director, Office of Children, Young Adults & Families, Georgia Department of Behavioral Health & Developmental Disabilities
1:00PM - 2:15PM (TBD Room)	Breakout Sessions Breakout A: Importance of Data & Validated Risk Assessments Cathy Dravis , Program Coordinator, Georgia Department of Juvenile Justice
(TBD Room)	Breakout B: Role of Officers in School Settings Danielle Rosa , Instructor, Georgia Public Safety Training Center Samuel Chandler , Officer, Dalton Police Department
2:20PM - 3:35PM (TBD Room)	Breakout Session Breakout A: School to Prison Pipeline Judge Steven Teske , Chief Judge, Clayton County Juvenile Court Dr. Garry McGiboney , Deputy State Superintendent for Policy, Georgia Department of Education
(TBD Room)	Breakout Session B: Georgia Juvenile Data Exchange: Bringing Data to Justice Kristy King , Program Manager, Judicial Council of Georgia Andrew Cumming , Consultant, Advanced Outcomes Consulting Group
3:40PM – 3:50PM (McIntosh Room)	Closing Remarks Adolphus Graves , Probation Services Director, Fulton County Juvenile Court