

SHALOM BAYIT

Peace in the Home

FLOWERS AREN'T ENOUGH

A gripping one-woman play about dating and domestic violence by Israeli playwright and actress Naomi Ackerman

Weaving voices of women from different cultures and backgrounds, this performance provides a profoundly moving portrayal of dating and domestic violence. Join us for a rare opportunity to experience this internationally acclaimed production as we work to prevent and end dating and domestic violence.

DATE: Wednesday, January 22, 2020

TIME: 7:00 – 9:00 PM

LOCATION: Temple Emanu-El
1580 Spalding Drive
Sandy Springs, GA 30350

COST: Free

REGISTER: at jfcsatl.org/flowers or skasten@jfcsatl.org

Appropriate for high school/college age and adults of all ages.

Pizza and drinks provided .

Hosted by: Shalom Bayit of JF&CS and NCJW
Atlanta Section | Co-sponsored by:
JumpSpark, Temple Emanu-El, The Temple
and Congregation Or Hadash

CLINICAL SERVICES | The Walter & Frances Bunzl Family Foundation Wing

Jewish Family & Career Services of Atlanta, Inc.
4549 Chamblee Dunwoody Road • Atlanta, GA 30338 • 770.677.9300 • jfcsatl.org

