Justice for Trafficking Victims: Criminal Restitution and Civil Remedies

January 26, 2018

10 AM - 3 PM

Fragomen Worldwide, 600 Peachtree St NE, Ste. 4200
Atlanta, Georgia 30308

Trafficked persons have significant rights under U.S. law, but they cannot exercise these rights without competent legal counsel. Pro bono attorneys and advocates can change the game, allowing trafficking survivors to participate fully in criminal cases against traffickers, and in launching civil suits against the perpetrators.

This locally-tailored training will cover crime victims' rights in federal cases, criminal restitution orders for victims, the Trafficking Victims Protection Act, and civil litigation against traffickers in federal courts. Topics covered:

- Federal Definition of Severe Form of Trafficking in Persons
- Federal Mandatory Criminal Restitution pursuant to 18 USC 1593
- Civil Right of Action for Trafficking Survivors pursuant to 18 USC 1595

CLE credits are available, but if CLE credits are claimed, the attorneys shall be responsible for paying the attorney fee for CLE credits pursuant to Georgia State Bar Governance Rule 8-103(C).

Presenters:

- Martina Vandenberg, President, The Human Trafficking Legal Center
- Susan Coppedge, former Ambassador-at-Large for the Office to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons at the United States Department of State
